

GARY SKELTON BIOGRAPHY

Born in Church Hill, TN, the very place he still lives today, Gary Skelton, is happy to know that, from where He is planted, God will surely help him grow...

Gary is firmly committed to his relationship with Christ and to all that God has called Him to do. He has a tremendous love for music and it can be heard as he sings, but his love for God supercedes that love. This is what is most important to him as He sings; that people will hear and see Jesus through his songs. His mission is to take the message of Christ to a lost and dying world. Gary also plays rhythm, bass, and steel guitar. He believes music is meant to uplift and to entertain believers as well. His sentiment is that being a Christian should be the greatest reason to have a great time and, that above all, the LOVE of Christ is the answer to every question a human heart may have.

His favorite verse is the most appropriate reflection of his faith and his commitment to share the love of Christ with everyone he meets. Romans 8:38-39 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
Second Column

Gary accepted Christ at seven years old at a revival service. He was baptized in the Holston River in northeast Tennessee. Gary sang his first song in church just a year later, at the tender age of eight. The name of that song was "Man On The Middle Cross." Gary continued to sing and eventually joined the Victory Quartet in the 1970's. He recorded three albums with them before he was finished that season of his life. God knew the plans He had for Gary as a young man and they continue to unfold today.
